

Available Now
'47 C140 (tail dragger)

The C140 is a two-seater, single-engine, light utility airplane with a maximum speed of 109 knots (125 mph), never to exceed 122 knots. Original models came equipped with 85-90 horsepower, 4-cylinder piston engines. The C140 was first introduced in 1946 at the end of World War II, and produced from 1946-50. More than 7.664 airplanes have been sold.

Features

- True FSX aircraft
- Working, highly detailed virtual cockpit (with custom upgraded panel for IFR)
- Doors, and engine compartment open (for oil check)
- Full 2D and 3D panels -- (day and night)
- High resolution, photo - realistic textures (interior/exterior), Optimized for smooth frame rate
- Realistic shadows and lighting, bump and reflection mapping
- Includes checklist and performance information
- Available in 4 paint schemes
- Real manual flaps handle
- Click chart for map screen/mike button for ATC window
- Animated key chain and retractable landing light