

Available Now
'58 C172 (straight tail)

It is a four-seat, single-engine, high-wing airplane, capable of cruising at 131 knots. Original models shipped with 0-300, 145 horsepower, 6-cylinder engines. The C172 is considered the most popular flight training airplane in the world and is still being produced today. More than 35,000 aircraft have been built.

Features

- First professionally produced *classic 172 (straight tail)
- True FSX aircraft
- Working, highly detailed virtual cockpit, GPS and localizer with glideslope
- Doors, windows and engine compartment open (for oil check)
- Full 2D and 3D panels—IFR ready (day and night)
- High resolution, photo-realistic textures (interior/exterior), red dome light
- Optimized for smooth frame rate
- Realistic shadows and lighting, Bump and reflection mapping
- Includes checklist and performance information
- Available in 4 paint schemes
- Real manual flaps handle
- Click chart for map screen/mike button for ATC window
- Animated key chain